LOCATION

The property is located in the heart of Ashford's pedestrianised area in the centre of Middle Row, benefitting from a high pedestrian flow to three elevations.

Ashford, one of Kent's designated growth centres, currently has a population of approximately 75,000 inhabitants and is set to grow substantially in the next 20 years. The town is centrally located within the county, benefitting from a fine communications network via the A20/M20 and five mainline railways. Ashford International Passenger station can provide direct access to northern continental Europe via Eurostar and London is some 38 minutes distant via HS-1.

DESCRIPTION

This period timber framed building has brick elevations under a peg tiled roof and provides approximately 750 sq.ft. of office accommodation on the first floor. The second floor provides male and female WC facilities, a small kitchen and a staff rest area. The building provides self-contained office accommodation on the first and second floor, accessed via a ground floor door with a reception area and display window.
